VOLUME XV. CHICAGO, THURSDAY, MARCH 13, 1862. NUMBER 210.

The Tribune.

THURSDAY, MARCH 13, 1862.

A bill to appropriate fifteen million dollars for iron-clad gunboats like the one, has been prepared and will be sent through Congress, as also an appropriation of $250,000 for Dahlgren guns.

All is quiet at Forts Monroe, but instant Secretary Fox of the Navy telegrams that the Rebels had run away and were still more desperate with the Merrimac, when one or other shall go to the bottom.

The rebels have fallen back to Gorville, 100 miles from Manassas, and at junction of the railroad to Richmond; scouts have penetrated as far as about a mile in that direction. The "great strategists" who have "reduced Manassas," has been himself reduced to a subordinate position in which he will have more time to employ all his brain in the duties before him; but as that might be thought to be an attack on a man who has been cut off at the knees, we leave congratulations to others, while we smoothe down the public temper which it seems to us, will be created by the rebels themselves.

A situation is salesable, by a German or any other man, who would be of great service, or of value to the rebels.

A Partner in the business—already established—will be given.

Situation wanted by a man who has been in the service of the United States, and is anxious to get into the service of another country.

THE CITY.

THE CONSPIRACY CASE.—The confirmation of the testimony for the defense in this赫羅尼米斯案 is to come off this afternoon at two o'clock at the Recorder's Court Room.

OUR FEMALE AMERICAN COUSIN.—Miss Judith has again paid us a visit at Mc-Donald's, and the attractive play of our female American Cousin.

CHRISTY'S OPERA HOUSE.—Our readers will not fail to remember that the opening of Christy's Berlin Opera House occurred on Saturday night of the present week.

TELEGRAMS.—There will be religious services at the Church of Ascension, on Clark street, North Division, during Lent, on Friday evening, at 7½ o'clock.

PROGRESSIVE.— Fred Young, late Deputy Sheriff of Chicago, of Company A, Smith's Battalion, has been promoted to a Lieutenant in the same company by Gov. Yates, for meritorious conduct at Fort Donelson.

THREATENING AN OFFICER.—A young man of respectable appearance, who gave his name as Silas Hodges, was yesterday fined $50, and cost for threatening a shoon at an officer while in the discharge of his duty.

DIED IN CAMP.—James H. Lindley, a member of company C, Illinois regiment of Illinois volunteers, died at Camp Douglas. He was left behind in hospital in the camp when his regiment was ordered to Cairo some weeks since.

H. JEWETT & CO.—50 barrels starch, well catalogued at 10 A. M., 100 boxes Canolis, 120 boxes Soap, 100 barrels Herring, 75 boxes Tobacco, 150 boxes chewing, 50 barrels Whisky and Brandy, 50 barrels Cranberries; also general Groceries.

UNION DEFENCE COMMITTEE.—All persons having contracts through the Quartermaster's Department, or otherwise, with the Government, or its contractors, are not inducted in the above. Theirs come through the Ordnance Department, and funds are expected in a few days.

RENT & STRATTON'S COMMERCIAL GAL-LERY.—The following young gentlemen have recently received Diplomas at this Institution: Geo. A. Johnson, Wm. W. L. Parrot, F. P. March, Charles H. Hart, Wm. B. Bradford, N. V. E. R. Hatch, Little, D. Cooley, Page III; Henry W. Brown, Rockton, Ill.; Mortimire Bundy, St. Charles, Ill.

JUVENILE DEPRAVITY.—A boy by the name of Nicholas Champion, but eleven years of age, was found by officer Morganthau on Tuesday night at about seven o'clock down a dark sidewalk, corner of Taylor and Shawmutte streets, was shot to the station house. An older brother was also in the same condition not far off. The younger Champion will be sent to the reform School.

CHICAGO GRIMES.—Wm. Thompson, the Chicago strong man, is to lecture in Butterfield next week upon "manly strength," a subject of which he is an illustration. Mr.
Thompson lectured the Boston strong man, Windham, in January, 1861, and qualified him to be now able to raise 200 pounds and "put up" a dumb bell with one hand weighing 16½ pounds.

INTERESTED LAND SUIT DECIDED.—The decision of Judge Tamm, of the Northern District of Illinois, in the case of G. C. Bates vs. the Illinois Central Railroad Company, has been affirmed by the Supreme Court of the United States, now in session. This is a final disposition of the case, by which the title of the railroad company to the property in dispute is placed beyond future question.

DROWNED AT WILLOW SPRINGS.—On Monday morning of this week the body of a man was found floating in the canal at Willow Springs, near the village of Wood Dale, in Cook County, held an inquest, when it was discovered that the deceased was George Braun, of the firm of Schenck & Braun, No. 411 Clark street, in this city. The verdict of the jury was that he came to his death by drowning while in a state of intoxication or temporary insanity.

DR. JEWETT'S TEMPERANCE LECTURES.— Dr. J. Jewett, now in New England, the author of the well-known lectures on the subject of alcohol, and its relation to the constitution of man, gave one of his lectures last Tuesday evening, at the First Congregational Church in this city, and has been engaged to deliver several more discourses on subjects of interest to different cities. Dr. J. Jewett will speak again, we learn, in the Presbyterian Church, Rev. Mr. Humphrey's.

UNREST AS WELL AS CRIMINALITY.—The Bettlers' Colony have at least hundred usual members of the military society at Camp Douglas. Heretofore they have considered that the same of enjoyment in the circumstances under which they are placed, was to eat Uncle Sam's rations and dance the Abolitionists' waltz. They have now, however, made several trips with workmen and spades, endeavoring to cut a channel for the escape of water with which the camp is flooded. This is according to the fitness of things, though one can imagine several blighted prospects for the latter, including, indeed, the possibility of a holy holiness, that the Southern Chivalry would then be placed upon a level with the "mud-dies" of the North.

DRINK AS WATER.—The lone companies are almost as busy as during the hot weather. So unmerciful is the drinking water, that our citizens are leaving their lodgings as though a July sun was pouring down upon them. We learn that we are about to be introduced to a new style of public fountains, the invention of the piece of the Calico Ice Company, (Cavern House Place), and bearing the name of the well known and just popular recipient of the old time favors, "Crystal Lake." The new fountain is to be located in the rear of the church on the subject of alcohol, and its relation to the constitution of man, to be given this evening for the benefit of our brave and wounded men:

Tuition.—The tution fee is $100 per year, $100 for tuition, $100 for room, $100 for board, $100 for board, $100 for board.

ANNUAL REPORT of the Board of Public Works.

Considerable space has already been devoted to the First Annual Report of the Board of Public Works. As comprising the first record of the first year of their existence, it is a document of great interest, both from the historical and historical point of view.

The Board was convened in May, 1861.

By the terms of the act of incorporation, this Board is charged with the care of the Water Works, the Sewerage Works, the Public Parks and other public places of the city, the Highways and Bridges, the Library, the Buildings, the Bridges, the Library, the Light-House, the Police and Fire Departments, the Lighting of the public places and buildings of the city, and with the direction of all the public improvements thereto to be commenced by the city. There have been made to the Board, the duties of the Sewerage Commissioners, the Street Commissioners, the City Superintendent, and of Special Commissioners for the making of assessments.

At the time of their organization, the Board were more or less ignorant of the method of carrying out their functions, but they have learned rapidly, and have now become quite expert in the discharge of their duties.

They have, however, been compelled to make many mistakes, and have suffered some loss, but these have been remedied by the experience gained in the discharge of their duties.

NEWS OF THE WORLD.

The Tribune of this week is full of important and cheering war news which will convey to its readers about as much in advance of the New York weekly papers. It is great folly for western people to send for eastern papers in the expectation of getting late news.

The Tribune contains an account of the great naval fight at Fort Monroe; the pitched battle between Gen. Curtis and Price, and the complete rout of the rebels; the evacuation by the rebels of Manassas and retreat southward, and other interesting news which all comes Gen. Fremont's defense by himself, and the great speech of Capt. Bell in the West Virginia, and the President's Special Message advocating gradual emancipation of the slaves.

THE EVACUATION.

Starting events on the Potomac are closely at hand. The rebels have failed to hold their ground from their lines, long occupied, stretching from Oceanon Creek on the Potomac to Leesburg.

The abandonment is unreserved, and no force of the enemy remains above the Rappahannock. And along our lines one can almost hear the click of drakels and rattling of sabers, marking ready for the great advance. The East is eager to show the West that its sons can fight as well as wait. The events cannot be long delayed which will decide the fate of Richmond, eastward, General Lee moving northward from North Carolina will play an important part. There can be no room for apprehension that the Government is not apprised of the exigency that may befall him, and has timely reinforced him. It is likely that he has a fighting column that will be the other milestone to the larger force bearing southward from our Potomac camp.

MANASSAS.

Manassas has ceased to be a point of interest in the annals of this war, with the retirement of the rebels. When peaceful times return, the passenger over the Orange and Alexandria Railroad will with interest gaze upon the scene of the battle.

And now we invite the scoundrels who have been assailing us, to the proof of the calamities which make up the sum total of their attacks; and to support this, we will call in every loyal man in the country to witness the trial of the cause of the Constitution, that the Government has the authority to employ whatever means that are sumptuous to it.

To build and support this navy will cost the lowest sum, and will be a small amount.

And in addition, will keep up a heavy expeditionary force, to the amount of one hundred thousand men, to be sent to the South, where they will be employed in the destruction of iron-clad war steamers, able to cope with our steamers.

And so far as the slaves are concerned,

Revolutionary Crimes of a Slave.

An estimate of the blackest and most revolting character, and which will almost stagger the most inveterate opponent of the dignity of the total depravity of the human race, was made public in this city yesterday. A don't may well arise in the mind of the reader who has not been so shocked which should be classed as a human being. The crime alluded to is that of a father outraging the person of his own daughter. The facts, as far as yet revealed, are as follows:

A man, whose name is Avery, who had long been an officer, in the service of the country, at the time he came to this city from Buffalo, deserting his wife and three children—the latter comprising a daughter and two sons—some seven years since. The daughter, now 18, lately learned of his whereabouts, and wrote him a letter and demanded his return. He responded and requested her to come to Chicago and cheer his lonely home by abiding in his housekeeper. She gladly consented, thinking thereby to gain a good home and the care and protection of a father.

After a few days' absence, she again returned uninvited into Avery's house.

She was received with a smile, and was given a place at table.

After dinner, Avery, who was then in bed, sent for his daughter.

He then told her that he had no money, and that he had no place to go.

She replied, "I have no place to go."

He then told her that he had no place to go.
